

About the Golden Dunkers

The Official Booster Club of the University of Minnesota Men's Basketball Program. Celebrating over 50 years of supporting Golden Gopher Men's Basketball. The Golden Dunkers Booster Club is a tax exempt, not-for-profit organization of men and women whose purpose is to support the University of Minnesota Men's Basketball Program. We provide financial support as requested by the Men's Basketball Head Coach to help the Gophers compete on a national level and sponsor functions of special interest club members. Funding and functions are consistent with the applicable NCAA rules covering booster clubs and their supporters.

Benefits of your membership

Impact of the Golden Dunkers

As The Official Booster Club of the University of Minnesota Men's Basketball Program, the Golden Dunkers have funded everything from small to large projects.

Here are a few notable projects we have contributed to:

- New practice facility
- Improvements to William's arena locker room and Coaches offices
- Acquisitions to player development and software
- Costs associated with teams annual banquet
- Support for teams exhibition trips
- Support for student groups including band and cheer team trips to away games
- Video equipment for game and practice analysis
- Stereo and training equipment for locker room
- Williams arena murals
